

I strongly oppose the relaxation of regulations limiting the conglomeration of media companies.

Please work to reverse this process and return the airwaves to local communities.

The media is a fundamental part of democracy and should not be consolidated under the ownership of only a few profit minded entities.